BURGLARS MADE $4,000 HAUL ON BEACH STREET

CARRIED AWAY JEWELS, NOVELTIES, DRESSES FROM THREE PLACES

GARDINER'S ART SHOP, JACQUES, THE IMPORTER, AND THE QUALITY SHOP VICTIMS OF CLEVER THIEVES.

Burglars relieved three Beach street stores of merchandise to the estimated value of about $4,000, some time Saturday night, and were gone at least six or seven hours before the robbery was discovered.

From Gardiner's Art shop, 146 South Beach street a large quantity of gold and silver jewelry and novelties and other valuables was taken. W. H. Gardiner, proprietor of the establishment, estimates the value of the missing articles at not less than $3,000. Entrance to the store was effected through the rear door, the glass of which was broken. Through the aperture made the thief had only to reach and turn the key in the lock. Evidently the invaders had previously acquainted themselves with the store's interior, as they seemed to know exactly where to go to find articles of greatest value. The upper shelf of a glass case contained a display of the Art shop's most expensive and beautiful things. The shelf was almost completely stripped.

The next establishment north of Gardiner's is that of Livingston Jacques, dealer in fancy goods. The burglars entered this place in the same manner by breaking a pane of glass in the rear door. Mr. Jacques informed a Daily News representative that between $700 and $800 worth of goods is missing from the stock he had on hand when he closed Saturday night.

Another place broken into, presumably by the same parties, was the Quality Shop, in the Arcade building on North Beach street. This place was also entered from the rear, the burglars evidently using a "jimmy" to break the lock on the sash, closing the one window in the back of the store. The Quality Shop handles ready-to-wear goods for ladies, and from its stock was missed 17 to 20 dresses valued at $200 to $300. Here also a previous inspection of the premises may have been made by one or more persons connected with the robbery, thinks Nat Goldman, proprietor of the store. A cabinet filled with dresses selling at $27.50 to $50 each was overlooked; otherwise Mr. Goldman's loss would have been far greater.

Each of the burglaries was discovered between 11:00 a. m. and noon on Sunday. The police department was at once notified, and the officers immediately instituted a search for the thieves, but so far no reliable clue to their identity has been found. Aside from the known fact that the crimes were committed, the only thing that

PUBLIC RECEPTION AND PARADE WHEN SUPERBAS GET HERE

BROOKLYN TEAM TO ARRIVE MONDAY — FLAG-RAISING DAY MARCH 6TH—EBBETS DUE HERE THIS WEEK.

One week from today, March 1st, is to be marked, it is hoped, by the turning out of the people of Daytona to meet Captain Danbert and other members of the Brooklyn ball club when they arrive at the railway station. From the station to the various hotels where the members of the Brooklyn team will stop during their month's stay here they will be escorted by the Daytona Athletic club in a body, by a committee from the Daytona board of trade, and by a special reception committee chosen from the Daytona lodge of Elks, of which fraternity a number of the Dodgers are members. The parade will start at the railway depot and continue through the principal streets to the players' several temporary homes.

Local owners of automobiles caring to favor the Athletic association with the use of their automobiles are requested to leave their names with the secretary of the board of trade, Benford Deacon, at 15 Orange avenue. The first, and one of the biggest, event of the baseball season will take place on March 1st, which has been designated as Flag-Raising day. Through the Athletic association, President and Mrs. Ebbets are giving to the city of Daytona a handsome field pennant, the formal presentation of which will occur at this time. The association is giving a very large and beautiful American flag.

Plans are being made to have President Ebbets throw the first ball into the field, while in rapid flight, far above the earth in Miss Lane's aeroplane. This will be a novel feature—one that has never, perhaps, before been seen at the opening of a baseball field.

President Ebbets and Mrs. Ebbets expect to leave Brooklyn day after tomorrow, arriving in Daytona some time Friday of this week.

EXPLOSION OF SHELL CAUSES BLAZE ON ELECTRIC CAR

While one of the cars of the Central of Florida railway was being charged at the car barn on First street at about 6:00 o'clock Saturday evening the high voltage caused one of the cells to explode and a couple of the seats in the car were set afire. The blaze was quickly extinguished, however, and little damage resulted.

Rev. Dr. Geo. L. Salvary, of Lewis town, Ill., the noted evangelist who is conducting a gospel meeting for the First Christian church, and will dedicate the new building next Sunday, is located while here with Mr. and Mrs. George D. Kallenberg at the New Elmhurst, convenient to the church on South Palmetto avenue.

BRITAIN'S ISOLATION IS GROWING MORE SERIOUS

LONDON, FEB. 22.—Beset by land and sea with German aircraft and submarines, the British Isles are today more isolated than they have ever been before. Germans dropped bombs at Essex last night, causing great uneasiness in London. Warships patrolling the North Sea reported the observance of signal lights flashing from Zeppelins. British shipping is in a panic. The small Irish steamer Downshire has been sunk in the Irish Sea.

A DOZEN GENERALS AND NEARLY 150,000 TROOPS CAPTURED BY GERMANS

THE RUSSIANS ARE DISPLAYING GREAT TENACITY IN THEIR EFFORTS TO GAIN THE VICTORY, BUT ARE BEING SLOWLY, THOUGH STEADILY, FORCED OUT OF GALICIA. THE RESULT OF A VIOLENT BATTLE NOW IN PROGRESS AT KOLOMEA MAY HAVE AN IMPORTANT BEARING. THE FIGHTING IS FURIOUS, AND HUNDREDS OF CORPSES LIE UNBURIED ON THE FIELD.

CONNECTICUT REUNION AT NAUTILUS CASINO COCOA MAN SUICIDES; NO CAUSE IS KNOWN

CITIZENS OF THE NUTMEG STATE WILL EFFECT ORGANIZATION THIS AFTERNOON AND ENJOY BALL THIS EVENING.

The Connecticut people of this city, Daytona Beach and Seabreeze are holding a reunion and basket picnic at the Nautilus casino this afternoon and preparations have been made for a big ball this evening at the same place.

At the meeting this afternoon a permanent organization will be effected and annual reunions will hereafter be held. There are many people from the Nutmeg state living in this city and the peninsula towns or spending the winter seasons here, and they are determined to make their state day one of the principal reunions of the season.

The ball this evening promises to be an especially attractive social event and will be largely attended.

Mrs. Joseph Somers returned Saturday afternoon from Miami where she had been during the week and rejoined Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Sengstak at their winter home at Daytona Beach with whom she is spending the season. Mrs. Somers was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Sherrick, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who is a season guest at the Despland hotel. Mrs. Somers is Mrs. Sengstak's sister.

L. DEALING, BRIDEGROOM OF ABOUT SIX WEEKS, TAKES OWN LIFE—LEFT SEALED LETTERS WHICH MAY EXPLAIN TRAGEDY

L. Dealing, bookkeeper in the Osborn wholesale grocery at Cocoa, committed suicide at his home in that place at about 11:00 a. m. Sunday morning by shooting himself in the head with a bullet from a revolver.

Dealing had been employed in the Osborn store for a year or more and was a bridegroom of only about six weeks. No reason was known for his rash act of self-destruction, but he left a couple of sealed letters which, when opened, may throw some light upon the matter.

THE MAN WITH A "GRIEVANCE"

Written Especially for the Daily News

By DR. CHARLES FREDERIC GOSS

Author "Redemption of David Corson"

For many consecutive weeks, I, once upon a time, attended the sessions of a central council of labor unions in a city of the middle west. Among the numerous committees was one upon "Grievances," the chairman of which was an expert in his line. Never, so far as I can now remember, did he fail to have a report, in calling for which the presiding officer always said, "We will now hear from the committee on 'grievances.'"

That report was invariably lugubrious. After listening to it several times, I could not help but feel that life was a hopeless problem. In the path of every enterprise, there seemed to be insuperable obstacles to happiness or achievement. Somebody was always doing something to thwart the prospects of the organization and its purposes. Everything that happened in the labor world was magnified into a mountain of antagonism. Events of the greatest possible insignificance were represented as bitterly hostile to the welfare of those who labored with their hands. Each was made to appear as if prompted by personal hostility on the part of employers. Whatever happened was made to seem like a cause of sorrow. Grief, grief, grief was written on every page of the book of life.

It would be unfair to the rugged men who composed that strenuous organization to intimate that they were exceptional examples of a vicious mental habit. They were merely representatives of a general condition; indeed, of an almost universal state of mind. Go through the corridors of our hotels in Daytona; knock at the doors of the rooms, one after another, and see if you can find a man or woman without some "grievance" against the management! Sound the members of all these churches and the various clubs; the clerks in the stores and the people of the community, and you will find that practically everyone has a "grievance."

Well, there are obstacles enough. Heaven knows, in the path of each and all of us; but what do we gain by turning them into "grievances?" Why not call them joysances? Are they not the causes of most, if not all, those achievements that make life worth living and give us our deepest happiness, in it?

If you value the welfare of your soul, refuse to accept the chairmanship of the committee on "grievances." The moment you begin to look to find them, you will see as many as there are bayonets in the German army. Look for the stepping stones across the muddy roads of life. Be ever on the watch for the ladders, that like Jacob's, reached to Heaven. Search everywhere for the helps; but be blind to the handraces.

Of all the miserable, useless, contemptible people in this world, the man with a grievance, is the worst.

MEMBERS "CALLED DOWN" BY SPEAKER

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—Several times recently Speaker Clark, of the house of representatives, has found it necessary to remind members of the lower house of congress, particularly new members, that the body is governed by certain rules which must be observed in order that the dignity of the house may be sustained. The other day, in the midst of a debate, the speaker said:

"The Chair will suggest that it is a good thing for members to keep their feet down from the tops of the seats."

Later he remarked:

"Before taking up the next bill the chair desired to make a statement. The rules of the house prohibit smoking inside this hall. Complaint has been made more than once about the violation of this rule. Now there is plenty of space outside for gentlemen to smoke."

When the layman conjures up in his mind a vision of a representative in congress, that vision is justly one of an important public official who, ordinarily, would be permitted to do about as he pleased with his feet and smoke almost wherever he might elect. Nevertheless, members of the lower house, by their own action, have created a rule prohibiting smoking in the hall or the house and Speaker Clark intends to see that the rule is enforced strictly.

Among the rules of the house is one—"Rule XIV," of Decorum and Debate"—Section 7 of which says in part: "and during the session of the house no member shall wear his hat, or remain by the clerk's desk during the call of the roll or the counting of ballots or smoke upon the floor of the house.  Neither shall any person be allowed to smoke upon the floor of the house at any time."

This latter clause would prevent the president of the United States, members of the cabinet, foreign ministers and the few other distinguished persons who have the right to go on the floor, from smoking within the hall of the house.

First Coined Money.

To Lydia, the industrial power of the ancient world, belongs the honor of having issued the first coined money. The earliest known coins were stamped on one side with a lion's head or the figure of a king with bow and quiver. So far as we know the first coinage of gold dates from King Croesus of Lydia. It is impossible to say just what form the earliest money (medium of exchange) took. Probably it was cattle—from which our word pecuniary comes.

WIDOW OF RAILROAD MAN WILL COME TO DAYTONA

Thomas Wetherell received a letter Friday from his sister, Mrs. A. V. Putten, stating that she would return as soon as Mrs. Ralph Atkinson could arrange her affairs in order to come south with her. Mrs. Putten was summoned north recently by the death of her brother-in-law, Ralph Atkinson, who was a railroad man and was killed while making a coupling between two cars, being struck in the head and surviving but a few minutes. Mrs. Atkinson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wetherell, of Holly Hill.

How to Correct the Mistake.

If you misdirect a letter and think of your error just after you have dropped the letter into a box, don't waste time waiting for the postman and asking him for it to let you correct your mistake. He won't do it; the law does not permit him. You must call at the station to which the letter is going and explain the matter to the clerk in charge. He will redirect the letter for you if you give him the correct address in writing.

Laughter a Tonic.

Laughter has its place in every wholesome, healthy life. A man who never smiles is morbid. He has lost the joy chords out of his life. He has trained himself to think only of unpleasant things, to look only and always at the dark side. He has accustomed himself so long to sadness that the muscles of his face have become set in hard, fixed lines, and cannot relax themselves.

Wearing the Surplice.

Surplice is the Latin super-pellicium, meaning that which is worn over a fur or fur jacket. As the jacket worn by the peasants, and for that matter by all classes, was apt to get dirty and unsightly, a kind of smock frock, that could be washed when necessary, was worn over it—and this was called the super-pellicium, the surplice.

Flirting in Public.

It may be bad form to flirt with your own husband in public, but it's awful good policy, because if you don't do it some other woman certainly will.

WEST VIRGINIANS ADMIRE HOTEL CLARENDON

C. L. Ritter and C. W. Watts, of Huntington, West Virginia, have joined Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark here, who are residents of the same city. They are all great admirers of the big seaside resort.

How to Discover Mastoiditis.
Tenderness discovered by pressing the hard bone behind the ear is apt to indicate mastoiditis, especially if the ear itself discharges. If the disease is recognized before serious trouble begins, a most grave operation and possibly death may be avoided.

CLARENDON GUESTS ENJOY IDEAL DAY

EVERY AVAILABLE AUTOMOBILE AND LIVERY RIG WAS PUSHED INTO SERVICE IN ORDER TO SUPPLY THE DEMAND.

J. H. Vashon, the genial and obliging carriage agent at Hotel Clarendon, was probably the busiest man in three states Sunday afternoon. With the big house practically full of guests and an ideal day at hand for automobiling and carriage driving, Agent Vashon was at his wits' end to supply the demand for vehicles. Not only was every automobile for hire pushed into service, but every available livery rig was also secured for the use of parties desiring to go for short drives.

Automobile parties leaving Hotel Clarendon yesterday had for their destinations DeLand, Lake Helen, New Smyrna, the orange groves, and it is doubtful if there was a foot of the beach that was not traversed, together with every good country road within a radius of 15 miles of Hotel Clarendon.

There were more vacant chairs in the big hotel lobby yesterday afternoon than on any day since the season began. The few that remained indoors spent most of the time in their rooms, and not until six o'clock did the returning throng serve to break the silence that had reigned supreme throughout the big establishment for several long hours.

Optimistic Thought.
Better a blush on the face than a blot on the heart.

GERMAN BRIDGE ROAD

Bridge road 546 yards long in northern France which was built by 600 German soldiers in five days.

SIGNOR ZANONI AT CLARENDON TUESDAY NIGHT

Signor Zanoni, in psychological demonstrations, some of which have staggered with mysterious weight the penetrating minds of the world's greatest scientists, will entertain the guests of Hotel Clarendon on Tuesday evening from eight to nine o'clock, in the ball room. These demonstrations are considered most marvelous, fascinating and intensely interesting, appealing alike to the lay mind as well as to the most cultivated.

BANNER NIGHT AT THE CLARENDON HOTEL SATURDAY

Various dinner parties, with guest lists ranging from five to twenty five, were given in the Clarendon grill on Saturday night, which served to make it the most brilliant evening seen at the big resort during the present season.

ALL EYES CENTERED ON HOTEL CLARENDON TONIGHT

Tonight occurs the annual Washington birthday ball at Hotel Clarendon, given by the management of the hotel for the entertainment of more than 300 guests now stopping at the big resort.

This event is looked upon as the greatest social affair of the season, since the anniversary occurs at a time when the house is catering to a capacity crowd, consisting of some of the wealthiest people in the country. A special menu and musical program has been arranged, and no pains will be spared by the management of the hotel to make it the crowning social function of 1914-15.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER SATURDAY NIGHT

C. L. Ritter was host at a dinner party given in the Clarendon grill on Saturday night participated in by the following named guests: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. McKeel, Miss King, Blaine Elkins, C. W. Watts and Mr. and Mrs. Loveland.

SPENT WEEK IN HAVANA AND PALM BEACH

Paul L. McKeel, of Morgantown, West Virginia, and Blaine Elkins, of Washington, D. C., members of the winter colony at Seabreeze, have just returned from a week's trip to Havana, Cuba, and Palm Beach. The gentlemen in question report a big crowd of tourists in both Havana and Palm Beach. The new race track in the island city has attracted to that resort the sporting element of New York and Chicago, so that hotel accommodations are at a premium.

Would Make World Happier.

OCEAN VIEW HEIGHTS

THERE CAN BE BUT ONE BEST PROPOSITION IN ANYTHING, AS THAT IS SPEAKING IN THE SUPERLATIVE. WHEN WE SAY THAT WE OFFER YOU THE BEST, IN THE WAY OF QUICK RETURNS ON YOUR INVESTMENT, WE MEAN EXACTLY WHAT THE WORD BEST IMPLIES.

THERE ARE MANY OTHER SUBDIVISIONS AROUND DAYTONA, SOME OF WHICH ARE GOOD—WE DO NOT DISPUTE THAT—BUT IF YOU WANT TO MAKE A QUICK PROFIT THERE IS NOTHING TO EQUAL OCEAN VIEW HEIGHTS, AND WE WILL BE GLAD TO DEMONSTRATE THAT OUR ASSERTION IS NOT TOO BOLD—THAT WE OFFER THE BEST.

GIVE US THE OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW YOU THESE SPLENDID LOTS, HIGH AND DRY, WITH THE STREET CAR LINE ALREADY BUILT INTO THE PROPERTY; HARD-SURFACED ROADS BEING BUILT, ELECTRIC LIGHTS, ETC. WHERE THERE IS PLENTY OF SUNSHINE, AND WHERE IT MAY BE HAD FOR LESS MONEY; WHERE THE PRICE OF LOTS IS SO LOW, THE TERMS SO REASONABLE THAT MOST ANYONE CAN BUY AND HAVE A CHANCE TO MAKE SOME MONEY.

THIS IS THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY EVER OFFERED THE PEOPLE IN THIS SECTION IN REAL ESTATE. BUY AND BE ONE OF THOSE TO TALK OF PROFITS MADE—NOT OF PROFITS MISSED.

REAL ESTATE HAS BEEN THE MOST SAFE AND SOLID FOUNDATION UPON WHICH TO BUILD A FORTUNE. REMEMBER THE ASTORS, VANDERBILTS, GERRYS AND MANY OTHERS WHO ARE FAMOUS FOR THEIR WEALTH, MADE THROUGH JUDICIOUS PROPERTY INVESTMENTS. THEY STARTED WITH NO MORE THAN YOU HAVE TODAY. THEY BOUGHT VACANT LOTS AND ALLOWED THE CITY TO "GROW UP" AND AROUND THEM. SIT DOWN AND THINK IT OVER; COMPARE YOUR SAVINGS ACCOUNT INVESTMENT WITH WHAT OTHERS HAVE MADE IN REAL ESTATE. JUDICIOUS INVESTMENT MEANS TO PUT YOUR MONEY INTO THE RIGHT PLACE—NOT WHERE THE PRICE HAS BEEN INFLATED—WHERE IT WILL BE YEARS BEFORE YOU CAN SELL AT A PROFIT, BUT WHERE THE PRICE IS DOWN ON THE GROUND FLOOR, AND WHERE PROFITS WILL COME IN A YEAR OR TWO.

OCEAN VIEW HEIGHTS IS THE BEST PROPOSITION FOR YOU. LOW PRICES. SMALL PAYMENTS. EASY TERMS. BIG IMPROVEMENTS. SPLENDID LOCATION, AND THE RIGHT KIND OF AN ORGANIZATION TO GET BEHIND AND PUSH MATTERS.

CONFERENCE OF "OLDER BOYS" OF MINNESOTA
BRAINERD, Minn., Feb. 20.—The Northern Minnesota Older Boys' conference was opened here today for two days. Plans will be made for extension of the work and much good will develop in the manner of training boys from the oldest down to the youngest. It will be along the line of the boy scouts upon an improvised scale.

Elder Fire-Fly.

Another remarkable insect found in Mexico is the Elder fire-fly, which the Indians use as miniature torches. The men fasten them to their ankles in going through the forest, and the women wear them in their hair under a thin gauze veil. Tiny little cages are constructed in which three or four are kept for lighting purposes. The insects congregate by the thousands in many forest trees and, as if by pre-concerted agreement, simultaneously flash their lights, then darken them and flash them again.

As to Beauty.

Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Theophrastus, a silent cheat; Theo-critus, a delightful prejudice; Car-neades, a solitary kingdom; Domitian said that nothing was more grateful; Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that 'twas a glorious gift of nature; and Gold alluding to him, calls it a favor bestowed by the gods.

The Present Day Girl.

The old-fashioned woman who used to have her weekly wash on the line at eight o'clock on Monday morning now has a daughter who can't get up in time to gather the laundry for the driver because he calls at noon.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

They Never Come Back.

There are four things that come not back—the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life and the neglected opportunity.—Eastern Proverb.

CHOCOLATES "PUT IT OVER" DRINKS WITH BIG LEAGUE MAGNATES

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—Chocolate caramels have supplanted liquids as a refreshing influence during the meetings of the National League magnates.
Ain't it astonishing?

The newspaper gang ambled into the magnates' room in the Waldorf immediately after the magnates had concluded their recent meeting. Did they see empty beer and champagne bottles here, there and everywhere?
Nope! all they spy was a box labeled "chocolates" containing three uneaten caramels.

"What the —" began the scribes in chorus when they were interrupted by Mrs. Helen Hathaway Britton, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals and the only big league woman magnate in the wide, wide world.

"Sh! boys; remember that a lady is present," laughed Mrs. Britton, who emerged from a corner in the room where she and her husband had been talking with President Tener.

"Righto, Mrs. Britton," responded the gang. "But these here chocolates —how the dickens did they get into this room—the last place in the world where they might be expected to be."

"I brought them" was the answer.
"I had to pass up lunch so as to get to this meeting on time and so I brought along the box of chocolates so that I might eat some during the meeting to keep from starving."

"Bring a full box?" asked one intrepid explorer for news.

"Yes, two pounds."

"Ah—er—did you—that is—the two pounds—you didn't—"

Mrs. Britton broke into the hesitating question with a ripple of laughter.

"Dear me, no, I didn't eat the whole two pounds," she said. "I had help.
There are the helpers" and Mrs.

Britton's arm described a circle that included all the magnates, Secretary John Heydler and President Tener.

"Yes, they did help me eat those chocolates," asserted Mrs. Britton, seeing a look of incredulity on the faces on the reporter folks. "And do you know that those men ate those chocolates with as much gusto as a high school girl. They ate and ate and it did my heart good to see those great big grown men enjoying candy so much."

"Didn't do the supply of chocolates much good" hazarded a reporter, peering into the near empty box.
"Only about three of the chocolates left. What's the matter with them?"
"Why, nothing," answered Mrs.
Britton.

"How comes it that they left those three?" asked the reporter.

Mrs. Britton looked at the reporter quizzically for a moment, and then a great light dawned on her.

"Oh, they left those for you" she laughed. Take them, they're awfully good.

"They are," answered the scribe, munching two at one time. Taste like $1 per pound variety.

Looking in the direction of Secretary Heydler, the reporter yelled:
"Hey, John is this chocolate diet going to be a regular thing hereafter?"

"Sure" answered Heydler. "The league voted in favor of it, that is,
it voted unofficially."

THE COMMODORE GIVES FRIENDS MUSIC FEAST

PARTY OF GENTLEMEN LISTEN.
SUNDAY MORNING. TO PRO-GRAM OF PIPE ORGAN—PIANO
SELECTIONS.

At the invitation of Commodore G. G. Burgoyne about a dozen gentlemen, winter residents, visitors and business men, assembled at the commodore's handsome home, 29 North Beach street, Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock and enjoyed a two-hours' musical treat. Commodore Burgoyne playing a number of selections on his magnificent pipe organs and piano.

These instruments are so connected that they may be operated either singly or in combination as desired and the result is particularly pleasing and effective.

To several of the party this combination was a new and interesting feature in the commodore's music room, in which his handsome Victrola is now the only instrument not in electrical combination.

In reply to a question regarding the new organ installed last summer, Commodore Burgoyne volunteered to show those who desired the mechanism of the instrument and nearly all present accompanied him to the organ chamber and viewed the intricate arrangement of the banks of pipes of which the organ is composed, and which make it a marvel of complexity. The two organs include 32 instruments and more than 3,000 notes.

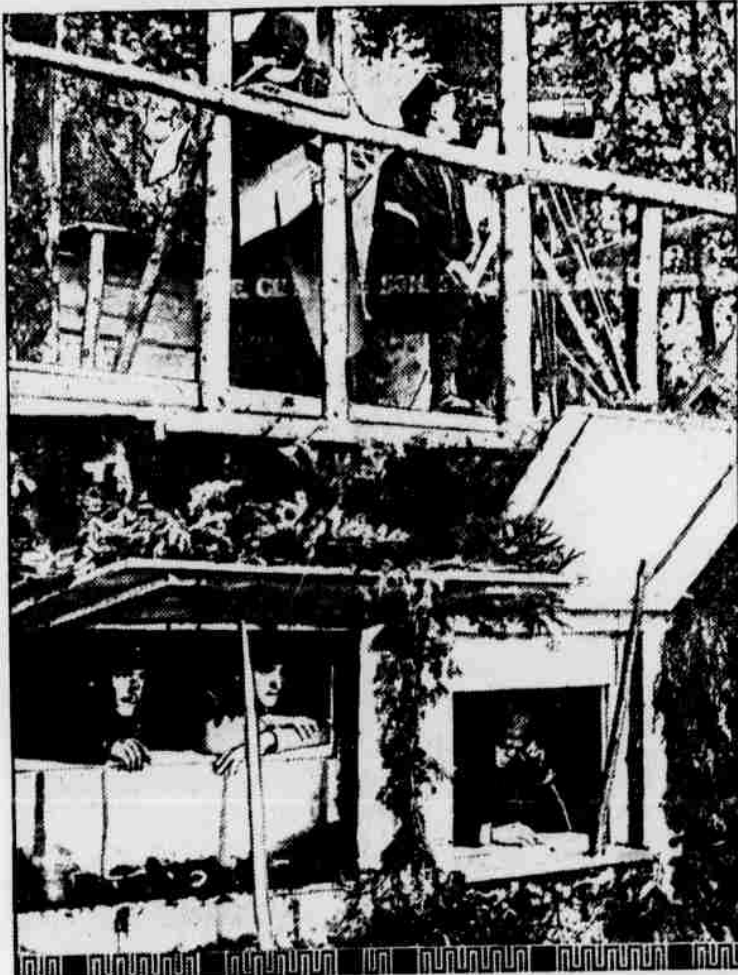

Upon the playing of "Auld Lang Syne" some of the party prepared to take their departure, but were informed by their host that it was not intended as a final piece and that he had several more selections he would like them to hear, including a new adaptation of the "Bohemian Girl," and it was close upon the noon hour when the commodore's guests finally took their leave after expressing their enjoyment and appreciation of the entertainment, which was one of a series being given by Commodore Burgoyne.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Murphy, of Birmingham, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. Keaton, of Georgia, are located in one of the cement cottages on North Peninsula drive for the season.

John M. Brenner and mother, Mrs. J. L. Brenner and nurse, Miss Cain, of Dayton, Ohio, are greatly enjoying their stay at the Bide-a-Wee cottage, and will spend the remainder of the season here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beardsley have been enjoying a visit from the latter's brother, D. W. Mills and family, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Mills, who was with his family at the Ridgewood, Daytona, left Tuesday on his return home.

Mrs. H. A. Horn entertained the Tofny society last Thursday evening at Seashell cottage on Ocean avenue. The attendance was large, and the evening was much enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Pollitz on Orange street.

In the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Darby, Contractor Crawford has enclosed the front porch of their residence with glass, making of it a very attractive and cozy sun parlor. This adds much to the outside appearance as well as the interior comfort of the home.

The contract has been let by the officials of the Seabreeze Baptist church, to A. S. Randall, for shaping up the church lot on the northeast corner of North Peninsula drive and Earl street. It is understood that sufficient funds have been raised to put in the basement, although plans for the building have not yet been definitely decided upon.

Mr. and Mrs. Darby and Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap, left in the latter's car for a trip to Tampa. They expect to be gone about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tippey, who are spending the winter in one of the Beardsley cottages, left Wednesday on a tour to Cuba, expecting to be gone a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Pollitz, who failed to take their usual summer outing, left Friday morning for St. Augustine, where they will be located for a time at the Buckingham.

A. J. Beardsley has leased his cottage, Idlewild, on Mitchell street, to Mr. and Mrs. C. Peavey and son, Frank, of Marietta, Ohio. They were accompanied here by a friend, Miss Maulby.

Philosophy in Hindu Proverb.
There is a Hindu proverb which can give a good deal of solid satisfaction in a hard world. It runs, "I had no boots to my feet and I murmured until I met a man along the road with no feet."

Why Shouldn't He Worry?
Tucker—"Why do I look so troubled? Well, last night I dreamed I died and was buried, Parker, and I saw the tombstone at the head of my grave." Parker—"Saw your tombstone, eh? And what of it?" "Why, I'm trying to live up to the epitaph."

WEALTHY WENDELS LEAD STRANGE LIVES

FOUR SISTERS WORTH $60,000,000 SHUN OTHER PEOPLE, ALTHOUGH RESIDING IN HEART OF NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—New York is never tired of discussing the mystery of the Wendels. No one has ever suggested an even probable explanation of the strangest family in America.

The four Wendel sisters have $60,000,000.

Three unmarried sisters live on Fifth avenue in an antique $5,000 house on a lot assessed at $1,897,000. The fourth (married) lives on Central Park West.

The four sisters have been enormously wealthy from birth. They have never ridden in an auto. They have never been on a yacht. They have never attended a theater.

They have not been in a church for twenty years.

They never wear any article of jewelry.

They have never used a telephone. They have never used an elevator. They have never given a social entertainment or received callers.

So far as known, they have never given money to charity.

Like little grey mice in an abandoned church, the three Wendel sisters sit about their strikingly ugly, big house just opposite the Union League club. A great department store has reared itself across the street on one side. A tall office building overlooks another side. The magnificent new New York public library in one block away. Their home lies midway between the imposing Grand Central and Pennsylvania terminals. The subway half circles them, being one block away on the east. They dwell in what has just become the heart of the fashionable shopping section. Before their doors streams the most magnificent procession of private vehicles to be seen anywhere in the Western Hemisphere, if not in the world. What is behind these doors?

Now and then an old employee of the great Wendel estate, second in wealth only to the holdings of the Astors, passes into the hall, the floor of which shows bare tiles in geometrical patterns without covering. The hall is reached by three sets of doors. In the rear of the hall is a great wooden stairway, and from the massive balustrade a ponderous iron gas jet gives a faint glimmer of light. The Wendels do not use electricity. Don't they approve of it? Nobody knows.

From the hall open the library, parlor and dining room, all kept exactly as they were when the builder of the house, John Wendel, died in 1859. The floor, of colored tiles, is scarcely relieved of its bareness by the small rug under the great mahogany table in the center of the room. The furniture is all old and massive. Every picture on the wall, as throughout the house, is covered with white muslin winter and summer. What is on the floors above, the writer cannot tell.

Although the building is four stories and a half high, there is no elevator or dumbwaiter. Two middle aged maids wait on the three strange sisters. All the sisters are clad in the same way. They wear black dresses, cut in the style of two generations back. They make their own clothes and wear them until slightly shabby. Their gray hair is drawn tightly back from their foreheads.

On two sides of their house the Wendel sisters have a yard, encompassed by a high wall. This yard is worth about a million dollars. The sisters take exercise here, but only in the evening, when no one can look down upon them from the high buildings nearby.

The life of of the fourth sister, Mrs. Luther A. Swope, is almost a replica of her sisters. But she does venture twice a week to the little old fashioned Wendel office at 175 Broadway, bare of telephone or modern office fixture, where the Wendel estate centers its business. She is a slender, square-shouldered woman, who dresses in the styles of 1880 like her sisters. But she is not quite so shrinking as they; she has the firm jaw of her brother, John O. Wendel, who died last December at Santa Monica, Cal., and to her the three maiden sisters turn over the responsibilities of the $60,000,000.

Aside from Mrs. Swope's regular visits to the Wendel offices the only exception of the strange quartet into the light of day are their spring trips to their country place at Irvington on the Hudson, and their fall trips back to New York. The Irvington estate is even more sequestered than the Fifth avenue dwelling. There is a high surrounding wall. Scarcely a neighbor remembers ever seeing one of the sisters' faces, except when they arrive for the hot season and when they leave.

Their sole vehicle at Irvington is a two seated family carryall, of a type popular in the seventies. It apparently dates from that period. A dealer who has delivered milk and groceries to the house every summer for ten years says he never has seen any of the sisters.

Mrs. Swope's husband is past 80. They have no children. There were seven members in this generation of the Wendel family and only these four sisters remain. Where will the money go when they die? Will a distant relative some day point the White Way red with their millions? Can you suggest what makes these sisters lead this dreary, misanthropic life? Have you your solution of the mystery?

Thank God for Work.

Thank God every morning that you have something to do that day, whether you like it or not. Being forced to work, and forced to do your best, will breed in you temperance and self control, diligence and strength of will, cheerfulness and content, and a hundred virtues the idle will never know. —Charles Kingsley.

Metal Railroad Ties.

The scarcity of wood for general purposes and the increasing cost of wooden railway ties in Europe has encouraged the manufacture and general use of metal ties in recent years in the railways on the continent. MASONIC LODGE PURCHASES ADDITIONAL REAL ESTATE

Halifax lodge No. 81, F. & A. M., has purchased from E. H. Mace, through the agency of A. J. Malby, a strip of land 20 feet in width and 163 feet in depth, adjoining on the east the Masonic property on Orange avenue. This is the west 20 feet of the original J. E. Sounds more like Russian than like a description of a completely furnished nine-room cottage, which I am offering to sell at a most reasonable price.

The house is well built, has built-in sideboard, window seats, high wainscoted living and dining room, enclosed china closets, bath and three bedrooms on main floor, three unfinished bedrooms up stairs, servants' quarters with private bath down stairs; there is a furnace in the basement, gas range, water heater, electric lights.

The lot faces Ridgewood avenue, is 55x400, has many grapefruit, orange and tangerine trees, as well as a rose garden. There is a garage. A home which will appeal to refined people, who have a desire for something better than the usual run of houses offered for sale.
